TOGETHER : BUILD AND PROTECT

I am a worker posted by my employer to a construction or public works site in France : how can I assert my rights in the case of a problem ?

If you are a posted worker working on a construction or public works site in France and you encounter a problem in the course of your work, you have rights, and there are solutions.

In France, there are organisations able to help you if you encounter a problem during your posting to France, for example the labour inspectorate or a trade union.

For more information, click here : Action by posted employees to defend their rights And information for employers - ministère du Travail, de la Santé et des Solidarités

Trade unions have the right to take legal action on behalf of posted workers
